BRIGHT OUTLOOK.

For some weeks the editor of the Chronicle has been making inquiries among the farmers as to the general conditions in the way of extended farming operations, the condition of live stock and the general trend of feeling among the people as to this section touching farming and stock raising.

We find that there is far more farming being done this year than ever before and it is being done better. Our people are full of confidence that this is a good farming section, when proper methods are employed.

Farm more farm machinery has been bought by the farmers this year than ever before and most farmers are working as rapidly as possible to the point where a larger part of the drudgery will be taken out of farming.

They are shifting the hardest labor from the man to the horse and providing machinery that makes possible much more and better work with less strain on the animals.
In spite of the severe winter stock generally came through in better condition than ever before. Sheep and wool are bringing a better price than for many years. Cattle are holding up well in price in spite of the great general business depression. All in all the outlook is now at least twenty-five per cent more farm products will be grown this year than ever before and there will be many more live stock on the farms than ever before, which means more cash.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE.

"Some of our farmers do not understand the difference in the lines of work laid out for Mr. J. E. Converse and Prof. F. S. Chance.

Mr. Converse was sent here several years ago to make experiments on this soil with the view to finding out what is most needed here and what crops will do best. Mr. Converse has labored energetically and intelligently with the result that he has demonstrated that in the line of commercial fertilizers for general crops, the most that is needed is acid phosphate. For special crops all three of the elements necessary to plant growth may be needed in varying quantities.

The work of Prof. Chance is to apply what Mr. Converse has learned and to assist the farmers to the best and most successful methods of applying what has been learned in agriculture.
He is doing this with vigor and the farmers generally are co-operating with him in a very enthusiastic manner. Splendid results are being shown and our farmers are growing larger crops than ever before, are taking more interest in farming and are getting more pleasure and money out of their work than ever before.

Both of these gentlemen will be glad to give any farmer all the assistance and information possible in any of their farming work. Do not hesitate to call on them for they are here to serve the people.

The county court has a chance to do the most helpful thing for the county that has come their way in a long time in selecting a sheriff Saturday.
There are several candidates. If the court wishes to do the very best possible thing for the county it will consider solely the fitness of the person for the place and cast personal favoritism to the winds.

No one who goes to play double,

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

MORE ABOUT TAXES.

Some Features of Prime Importance to All Citizens.

The Chronicle's editorial on Taxes suggests many defects in our taxing system that retard our progress as a commercial people, if not in many other ways. Some of these defects are in the law and some in the practice.

Take for instance a man who has a farm worth $10,000. The practice is to assess it at, say, $3,500. Should he sell the farm and take $10,000 in notes, he is then assessed at $10,000 and his taxes nearly three times as large as they were and he is no richer. One of the results of this is that people cannot own notes without paying an undue tax.

This has the effect of depressing the value of all notes. If a man has one he wishes to negotiate, he must allow the taxes to be counted against him and reserved by the purchaser. In other words, the seller of the note and not the buyer, has to pay the tax. No one would be apt to invest in six per cent interest notes and pay three per cent taxes on them. This tax is without reference to the date of the note or the time it runs. Say a note is dated December 1, and runs three months. The owner on the 10th of January must pay the taxes of, say, $3 on a note for $100. The interest on the note is $1.50.

Another result of this system is that people do not give in their notes for taxes, if they can avoid it, and very little taxes are gotten in many instances, at least, and tax dodgers become more and more expert, and taxes are heavier and heavier on what is found or given in for assessment.

It sounds well to say that all property shall bear its equal share of taxation, but when the trial of such system is found to have bad results, it would be better to make a change. It is true that doctors for financial ills are thick, and not many have a real cure. The necessity for taxation causes much trouble. Renzi, the last of the Roman Tribunes, received the shouts and applause of his people till it became necessary to levy a tax, and then they wanted to crucify him.

It seems to me that it would be better not to tax notes according to value as is now done, but that a stamp tax system, on a properly graduated plan would do better. Require each note to bear a stamp according to value, and not to be collectible in court without the stamp. This would be as fair for one as another, would make notes more desirable, and would bring more taxes into the treasury than the present system, and the necessity for people to hide away what they have to dodge unfair taxes would be gone, to some extent, at least. A system that is ruinous to business and yields no taxes either, is not desirable.

CHIVALRY AND JUSTICE.

For a splendid spirit of justice few can surpass the record of Mr. A. G.
Pentecost, a prominent business man of Pittsburg, Penn.

In an open letter to Rev. Edward B.
Travers, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, Mr. Pentecost withdraws from membership in that church and declares his intention to leave out until women are given equal rights with men in the diocesan council.

The letter says: "Allow me to say that if women are not fit to vote in church matters, they are not fit to attend church. I hereby cancel my pledge to take effect at once, and please remove my name from the rolls, as I never will enter an Episcopal church until such time as the Protestant Episcopal Convention think women capable of voting."

Mr. Pentecost's step was prompted by action of diocesan convention which denied women the right to vote. Mr.
Pentecost is a true exponent of the gospel of humanity which holds all souls equally responsible, for their is "neither bond nor free,—male nor female"—for we are all ONE, and to bind the female and free the male is a growth of man-made creed and arrogance in direct defiance with the oneness of soul-development, soul-accountability and soul-power.

Be not unequally yoked is a command that applies just as effectively in national and in sectarian as in domestic warfare. May churches of all creeds be purged of the pharisaism of masculinity,—the "holier than thou" attitude toward women members, and join in a fellowship that equally includes the "sons and daughters that shall prophecy" for the betterment of the human family.

A MISTAKE MADE BY MANY.

When you suffer pains and aches by day and sleep disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy, strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys in sound, healthy condition and keep them active and strong. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

MAIL CARRYING.

Asked That Commerce Commission Be Given Control Over Pay.

Atlanta, Ga., June 1.—Railroad executives representing ninety per cent of the entire mileage of the country, among them officials of leading southern roads, at a recent meeting approved the court of the Committee on Railway Mail Pay in its efforts to secure from the U. S. Government adequate compensation for transporting the mails and urged that Congress enact a law giving the Interstate Commerce Commission the same jurisdiction over mail traffic that it now has over other classes of traffic.

Unanimous approval was given the following reforms of the present law which the Committee has urged.

1. That the mails be weighed, and the pay readjusted, at least once a year on every railway mail route, instead of once in four years, as at present.
2. That the railroads be paid for, or relieved from, the duty of carrying the mails between railroad stations and post offices.
3. That the railroads be paid for apartment post office cars—for which the present law allows no pay—on a pro-rata basis with the compensation for full railway post office cars.

Among the lines operating in the South represented at the meeting were:
Southern Railway, Norfolk and Western, Chesapeake and Ohio, Illinois Central, Louisville and Nashville, N.
C. & St. L., R. F. and P., Atlantic Coast Line, and Seaboard Air Line.
The General Managers' Association of the Southeast and the Short Lines Railroad Association were also represented.

NOT FOR MEN ONLY.

Women suffer as much as men do from indigestion and constipation and require the same scientific remedy to keep the stomach sweet, the liver active and the bowels regular. Foley Cathartic Tablets are wholesome and cleansing; do not gripe or cause nausea. Stout people say this is the one cathartic that takes away that over-full and clogged-up feeling. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

GENEROSITY OF JOHN D.

Let Elbert Hubbard Have a Mouthful of Water Under Rigid Conditions.

The following from the pen of the late Elbert Hubbard, one of the victims of the Lusitania, is a fine instance of a splendidly manufactured joke.

"I golf, occasionally, with Mr. Rockefeller, and have often endeavored, between fizzes, to do business, but your Uncle John does only one thing at a time.

"When he plays golf he never carries his checkbook.

"Once he presented me with a paper vest, but that was the limit. If he gave you a pair of pants, they would be made of Kalamazoo Parchment. "When you play golf with Mr.
Rockefeller he charges you up for lost balls; also, he has his butler search you for contraband before you go out of the gate.

"Last October, I played him nine holes and lost out—for diplomatic reasons.

"As we were going to the house to change our clothes I touched him gently for a little matter of half a million, but there was nothings diddings, as we say in Potsdam.

"I offered to compromise on a hundred thousand, and a little later even lowered the ante to a ten-spot, but he referred me to the Foundation Committee.

"At last I said, 'John, just as a Chesbrough favor, as a matter between two honest golfists, for we are both practical men, will you lend me a street-car ticket?'

"And Mr. Rockefeller replied in his soft, velvety voice, 'Fra, any man who can play golf can walk.'

"I staggered up against a convenient tree, and at the count of nine regained my consciousness enough to burlie, 'May I get a drink of water down there out of the creek?'

"And Mr. Rockefeller solemnly replied: 'Fra, you are welcome to go down to the creek and get one mouthful of water, just one, provided you spit it out on the lawn. These are war-times and we must all economize.'"

HAD LITTLE INFLUENCE.

A good story has leaked out which is a pretty good joke on the governor.

It seems that some time before the legislature convened a "regular" Democratic representative from a Middle Tennessee county in the lower house was talking over the phone with one of his constituents back at home. The following was the conversation:

Constituent—"Ain't you tryin' to get me that job?"

Representative—"I'm doing my best for you. I've been in to see Gov. Rye a thousand times, and to tell you frankly I don't believe there is any chance for you."

Constituent (somewhat miffed)— "Do you mean to say that you, a 'regular' Democrat in the legislature, have no influence with this administration?"

Representative (angrily)—"Well, to tell you the truth, old man, I haven't a d—n bit more influence with this administration than Gov. Rye has."
